

The Daily Freeman.

MORNING EDITION.

MONTPELIER, VT.
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1863.

No paper will be issued from this office this afternoon nor to-morrow morning.

Some trouble with the telegraph wires, and we get no despatch.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 21. It is ascertained that the National Conservative Union Committee, now in session in this city, have reaffirmed the nomination of Major General George B. McClellan for President, and have nominated Judge Campbell of Pennsylvania for Vice President.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. The Detroit Tribune of Monday has an account from Captain Stringleman of the new steaming Sentinel, which left there for New York last month, of an attempt at Montreal of a dozen Southerners to obtain passage to Picton, with the supposed object of stealing the vessel. The passengers were not taken.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. The Post's Washington dispatch says Gen. Taylor of Ohio, has been placed in command of the Relay House under Gen. Lockwood.

A number of agents are here from the North to procure colored recruits. The government will no longer permit such recruiting here, as it is considered unjust to Washington.

A large number of Congressmen left for the North to-day.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. There is every reason for believing that Gen. Butler will negotiate an exchange of all Union prisoners now at Richmond. He will send in exchange the rebel prisoners at Point Lookout, where there are more than eleven thousand under charge of Gen. Gilman Marston.

The New Hampshire brigade, which guards the prisoners, received last week over five hundred recruits, and the 2d New Hampshire is now over one thousand strong.

Two Union prisoners who were aided in escaping from Richmond, by Union residents, arrived here this morning. One was carried out of jail in a coffin, having feigned death.

Testimonials to the Value of Laughing Gas.

MONTPELIER, Oct. 17, 1863.

Having witnessed the effects of the use of Nitrous Oxide Gas in the extracting of teeth by Dr. J. M. Comings, I take pleasure in stating, that I think it one of the greatest improvements of the age, in the application of science for the relief of pain. Its use I regard far preferable to that of Ether or Chloroform, while the relief from pain is just as entire, as that of either of Chloroform, it is free from those depressing influences that often follow their use. I commend its use as a safe and entire relief from pain to those who wish to have their teeth extracted and ever retain pleasing associations connected with the operation.

W. H. H. RICHARDSON, M. D.

Dr. JOHN M. COMINGS.
Dear Sir: Having witnessed the effect of the Nitrous Oxide Gas administered by you for the relief of pain in the extraction of teeth, I fully concur in the statement above made by Dr. Richardson.

I further state, that this Gas has long been known to scientific men, and has often been administered by Professors and Lecturers in our Colleges, as a pleasant and amusing experiment. More recently, it has been extensively used by Dentists in various parts of the Country, for the relief of pain in the extraction of teeth, no injury from its use ever having been reported. I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe it to be the safest and best agent at present known to the Profession, for rendering the system insensible to pain under dental or surgical operations.
